Article VI. Termination of Membership. Section 1. Voluntary Resignation is amended to read:

After 5 months of the initial term, I may give my 30 day written notice to terminate my membership with The Alaska Club. If this membership is cancelled prior to the completion of the 6-month commitment, I (the member) agree to pay to The Alaska Club the lesser of (a) the remaining dues to fulfill the 6-month commitment, or (b) the full amount of the discount on the enrollment that was given in exchange for the commitment, which is $_____.

If at any time during this initial membership term the member suffers a prolonged medical condition that prevents the member from using The Alaska Club facilities for the entire duration of the initial membership term, the member may cancel the membership, without any penalty, provided the member provides the Club with a written doctor's certification verifying the member's inability to use Club facilities for the rest of the term.
