

THE ALASKA CLUB

Notification of Right of Cancellation

Under Alaska law, because you are purchasing a membership from The Alaska Club at a location other than The Alaska Club, you have the right to revoke (i.e. cancel) the membership agreement within five business days of today's date.

In order to revoke your membership with no penalty, you must send written notice to The Alaska Club via registered mail to the following address:

Anchorage/MatSu/Juneau/Fairbanks

Attn: Member Accounting
The Alaska Club
5201 East Tudor Road
Anchorage, Alaska 99507

The letter must be marked "Deliver to Addressee Only, Return Receipt." Upon receipt of a timely notice of revocation, The Alaska Club will immediately cancel your membership effective the date of the postmark on the notice with no penalty to you so long as you have complied with the requirements set forth above. If you decide to cancel your membership after this five business day revocation period, the cancellation provisions and penalties set forth in your Membership Agreement will be applied.

I acknowledge receiving notice of my right to revoke the Membership Agreement with The Alaska Club within five business days.
