ARTICLE III. CLASSES AND TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

The benefits and entitlements for the various classes and types of membership, as may be amended from time to time, are set forth in The Alaska Club Member Handbook and online at www.thealaskaclub.com.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Nature of Membership. Membership is a non-transferable right which confers on Member the sole right to use and enjoy the Club facilities in accordance with the rules and regulations as adopted and/or amended by the Club.

Section 2. Nondiscrimination. The Club accepts membership applications from any individual, family or business organization of good character and responsible credit background without regard to race, creed, color, sex or national origin.

Section 3. Prior Membership Contingency. Any applicant who was a prior member of the Club will be asked to verify that their prior membership termination was done while the member was in good standing. New membership is contingent on member satisfying any prior unpaid debt retained by the Club and any sums paid shall first be applied to the remaining unpaid debt.

ARTICLE V. ENROLLMENT FEES, DUES AND CHARGES

Section 1. Fees.

(a) Enrollment Fee. All new members shall pay an enrollment fee to the Club. The amount, manner and time of payment of such fee shall be established by the Club and may be changed from time to time. No portion of such fee will be refunded if a member withdraws or downgrades the membership. If a member has elected a membership with a 12-month initial term, they may upgrade by signing a new agreement for the remainder of their membership term. This will increase the cancellation fee to the upgrade level. If no term commitment is in effect, a membership may be upgraded by signing a new one-year agreement or paying $35.00.

(b) Annual Fee. All new members will be assessed an Annual Fee commencing on or about the second billing cycle after they become a member. This assessment will appear on a member's bill. The assessment will be made about the month the initial Annual Fee is due and then annually thereafter on the anniversary month of the initial assessment.

Section 2. Dues and Fees. Monthly dues vary by region and membership classification. Members agree to pay dues based upon the location of their primary residence or primary use. The obligation to pay dues is not dependent on the availability of all the Club's facilities. Dues will not be reduced or suspended during the time when one or more of the facilities are not available. Annual increases in dues and fees, will generally occur in October of each year.

(a) Leave of Absence. With appropriate documentation from their physician, members may apply for a leave of absence if they are unable to use the Club because of prolonged illness or injury. Members may apply for a business leave, in writing and in advance, with satisfactory proof from their employer. The dues of members on leave of absence shall be established by the Club and may be changed from time to time.

Section 3. Charges. Member, co-applicant and dependents, may use an approved credit card on file to purchase any non-recurring Club goods and services. Credit terms may be changed as warranted.

(a) Online Services System. The Club has an Online Services System where a member is able to electronically pay dues and charges, access Club services and commit the member to services or other Club amenities (such as court reservations) without personal interaction with Club staff. Member understands and agrees that by using the Club's Online Services System, member will be bound by any such electronic commitment pursuant to the terms and conditions of this membership agreement and as set forth in the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (AS 09.80.010 et seq.) until such time as the member withdraws, in writing, from the Club's Online Services System.

ARTICLE VI. RULES, REGULATIONS AND POLICIES (collectively "Policies")

Section 1. Publication and Access. The Club has adopted Policies for use of Club facilities which all members and guests are expected to honor as a part of this membership agreement. Policies may vary by Club location and are set forth in The Alaska Club Member Handbook and online at www.thealaskaclub.com.

Section 2. Changes. The Club may amend or adopt other Policies. New Policies or policy amendments will be published in the Member Handbook as it is periodically updated. All current Policies are available online at www.thealaskaclub.com.
